Only Four Hundred Have So Far Reported for Duty.

FIFTY-THREE JUNIORS BACK

Those Turned Down on Appli cation for Reinstatement Are Judged by General Record.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BLACKSBURG, VA., January 9.-Fifty. three applications from the juniors who left Virginia Polytechnic Institute before Christmas with their class have been rejustated as students, but they are on probation. Thirteen members of the class were not disciplined, because they either had not signed the famous mandatory resolutions, or, having signed them, had taken their names of before the resolutions went to the president, taken their names off before the resolutions went to the president.

Letters are coming in very rapidly now, and the most of them are manly and frank, and therefore very satisfactory to the faculty. Very excellent letters have come from some of the Richmond boys.

The applications for readmission are being considered separately, and the students are being promptly notified of their acceptance or rejection. Several of the prounds and have reported for duty.

Three members of the class are on the grounds and have reported for duty.

Three members of the junior class committee have applied for reinstatement, and all three applications have been acted on unfavorably unavoidably.

It is understood, however, that the faculty's refusal to reinstate students is not based entirely on their part in the recent trouble, but their action has been influenced-very largely by the students provious records.

Only about four hundred undergraduates have so far reported for duty after their Christmas holidays, but this number is being increased very rapidly by mearly every train that comes in.

on account of the expulsion of Cadet

Coulter, of Richmond, have been refused readmission to the Institute, and will enter other schools.

cander schools.

Cadet Schaefer was notified by the faculty that his letter applying for readmission was not plain as to his position on the action of the class. He was notified that he must state in writing that he thinks now the class was in error in its stand, and this he refuses to do.

Mr. Snead returned home Sunday morning, after being satisfied that he could not get into the school again without humiliating himself.

On Saturday, at the noon mess, only

On Saturday, at the noon mess, only two hundred and sixty-five out of seven hundred had returned to the Institute from their Christmas holidays.
